Beautiful book By ND Lgorgeous settings from a company known for exquisite quality (the legendary Flora Danica service) and modern new takes, just a beautiful coffee table book - great sense of design 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By HYUN J. I ove to have this book. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Outstanding By Dr B 50 Years of Christmas Tables written by Lone Rahbek Christensen is a superb description of the world class Danish porcelain making since 1775 till today. With a thorough depth of research, it describes the history and the cultural origin of each and every design and painting (from Blue Fluted to Flora Danica) on the porcelains. It is very well written and absolutely a delight to read. I would highly recommend this book to anyone who would like to start putting together a collection from Royal Copenhagen or simply would like to know more about the background for the fine Danish porcelains. This is certainly much more than a Christmas Table book; it is a Must Have!

Since its founding in 1775, every single piece of china from Royal Copenhagen has borne the now world-famous logo with its three waves. They symbolize the Danish straits of Great Belt, Little Belt and the Sound. With its timelessly classic blue and white porcelain the company cultivates its traditions and the highest standards of Danish craftsmanship-- to this very day, all pieces are handmade and handpainted. At the same time, for Royal Copenhagen the waves are a symbol of their commitment to constant innovation, and hence the brand stands for originality and a quality-conscious lifestyle. An annual highlight is the exhibition of artistically designed Christmas tables, which has become one of the most popular events in Copenhagen. For 50 years now, international celebrities, including even the Danish Queen, have used Royal Copenhagen's exclusive china to present their own interpretations of festive table settings.
