Even though I know most of these designs are simple, they are beautiful and heartfelt, not "corny". With the variety of flosses suggested for the patterns, you get a great, creative design without it being so large. This way, you can give beautiful gifts to those you love without a huge output of time. I love it!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. You'll always have a perfect saying for your cross-stitch projects with 555 patterns that will touch your heart as they enhance your work. Celebrate friendship, home and family, love, simple pleasures, spirituality, the holidays, and more, with sentiments such as "It is by believing in roses that one brings them to bloom," "Mother knows best," and "No whining or complaining allowed." Charming motifs range from flowers and stars to animals and athletes. The author lives in Ragland, AL. 128 pages (all in color), 8 1/2 x 11.

From BooklistTo needleworkers across the country, Barber's first collection will be a true shot in the needle. After all, more than 500 designs--albeit crammed into 117 pages--offer at least one or two choices for even the most fastidious of stitchers. Gathered here are a selection of new and old homilies, separated into 10 family-oriented categories, from celebrations and love to thank-yous and friendships. Some examples of these sayings are "Make your own rainbows" and "My idea of housework is to sweep the room with a glance." Beginners should be alerted to the fact that few directions, except in the broadest terms, are included. Kreinik conversion chart and metric conversion chart are appended.
