Nick Lowndes : An Architect's Dot-to-Dot before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised An Architect's Dot-to-Dot:

Connect the dots . . . and see 45 iconic buildings from around the world! From Frank Lloyd Wrights Fallingwater to Jorn Utzons Sydney Opera House, these dot-to-dots present the worlds most stunning architectural marvels. Each drawing has over 300 dots, and you can color in the completed picture. The images include: the Guggenheim Museum, Battersea Power Station, Habitat 67, and the Chrysler Building as well as works by Mies van der Rohe, Norman Foster, Renzo Piano, Alvar Aalto, Zaha Hadid, and Le Corbusier. Solving these puzzles is the perfect mindful activity!
