Anita Shackelford : Anita Shackelford: Surface Textures before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Anita Shackelford: Surface Textures:

0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Three Stars By Ellen A. Craig Great for beginners. 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Excellent book By Jill G. Allen The first book I have found that gives clear, easy to follow instructions for doing trapunto work. Pictures are detailed and written instructions are easy to follow. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By I. De Beer the is what I expected

About the Author Anita Shackelford has been making quilts since 1967 and teaching since 1980. She has taught in her home, for adult education, for shops and guilds across the United States, and for AQS and NQA during their annual shows. Anita has been a member of the National Quilting Association (NQA) since 1982 and is currently serving as membership chairman. She is a charter member of the American Quilter's Society (AQS) and also belongs to the American Quilt Study Group, and Country Crossroads Quilters in Bucyrus, Ohio. Anita's quilts have won awards in shows across the United States, including six Best of Shows and several for technical excellence. Two of her quilts have received the Mary Krickbaum Award for best hand quilting at a National Quilting Association show. The focus of her work is on dimensional applique and fine hand quilting. She enjoys using and teaching nineteenth-century techniques, combined with her own designs, to create today's album quilts. She is also an NQA certified quilt judge and has been involved in judging shows at local, regional, and national levels.
