The instructions were clear and look like fun but the items to make are very limitedBy Leslie MalcolmsonThe instructions were clear and look like fun but the items to make are very limited. I was hoping for sweaters or cardigans.There was a capelet, bolero, and a gilet but the largest size in L. Hasn't Ms. Temple heard of Plus sizes. The only item close to an item of clothing was the gilet and it did appeal to me but - only came in size L.Too many scarfs/cowls/hats/jewelry.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. It has great projects, but I wish there was more! I love this book though because it got me going with arm knitting!3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. fun patternsBy E1therMy daughter chose this. She has tiny arms and thus her arm knit projects look great! There are some interesting pieces in this one that she has been able to make her own.

If you like large-scale knits or you appreciate the bigger stitches and open texture you can achieve by knitting with your arms or fingers, then you will find plenty of inspiration in Arm and Finger Knitting. Breaking free from the constraints of normal needle sizes, Laura Strutt demonstrates how to do all the usual stitches and techniques using just your arms and hands, from plain knit stitch to seed stitch, increasing and decreasing, and knitting with two or more strands of yarn at a time. To make the best use of the unique texture and scale of no-needle knitting, she has designed 35 stylish projects for you to make, for the home and to wear. There are stylish arm-knitted scarves, and throws, but also a simple stool cover, a stylish gilet, and a shawl you can knit in under an hour. Using finger knitting, you can quickly create place settings, a bath mat, and even a necklace. A photographically-illustrated step by step guide to techniques covers everything you need to know, from casting on to cabling, clearly and simply. Its no wonder there is so much interest in arm and finger knitting when you can get spectacular results in such a short time.

Perfect for the person who likes to craft, with almost instant gratification. All you need is yarn. --The Hartford Knitting Examiner
