9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. fun but not a real paper doll book By audrey frances This is fun but not a real paper doll book. Sixteen artists are each given one page on cardboard stock. Each page depicts the artist standing, a few props and some factoids. For instance, the van Gogh page has an easel, three heads of Vincent's based on self-portraits, a paint palette, a chair and some sunflowers; we are told his style is Post-Impressionism, a famous work is The Starry Night, and he cut off his left ear (though the page depicts his right ear as cut off). Artists are in chronological order by their birth year, and they are: Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, Rembrandt, Degas, Cezanne,

Monet, van Gogh, Toulouse-Lautrec, Matisse, Picasso, Duchamp, O'Keefe, Escher, Dali, Pollock and Lichtenstein. Each artist seems to have a paper-doll slotted stand and cut-outable props, but none of that is practicable. It is meant as an illusion and an entertainment. You are not meant to actually cut them out. So this is perfect as a gag gift, but if you give it to someone who actually wants to play with paper dolls, this is not for them! 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. One is not enough. Buy two. One for the bookshelf, one to cut out and play with. Fun, educational info about the artists. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great gift! Much cheaper on ! By Lauren Another gift gift I found in a store but it was significantly cheaper on ! My mom is an art teacher and this was a great hit with her! There are so many outfits for the artists and accessories for them too. I don't know if my mom will actually take them out of the book or leave them in to keep them nice but either way this was a pretty funny gift at a great price!
