Lots of stuff to do before you can use themBy YI have been just tracing the stencils and then using carbon paper to get them on to things. I didn't realize that you needed to use linseed oil and jump through a number of irritating hoops to use them. Kind of a disappointment only because I have to trace everything and use carbon paper the upside is that the stencils are still in the book in perfect condition for future use.

66 stencils feature authentic Art Nouveau designs: sea horse, peacocks, florals, butterflies, swirling lines, and many more.
