

[Free read ebook] Backcountry Betty Crafting With Style: 40 Nature-Inspired Projects

Backcountry Betty Crafting With Style: 40 Nature-Inspired Projects

Jennifer Worick

ebooks | Download PDF | *ePub | DOC | audiobook

Download

Read Online

#3082358 in Books Skipstone Press 2009-04-01 Original language: English PDF # 1 8.34 x .33 x 6.98l, .51
#File Name: 1594851395128 pages | File size: 24.Mb

Jennifer Worick : Backcountry Betty Crafting With Style: 40 Nature-Inspired Projects before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Backcountry Betty Crafting With Style: 40 Nature-Inspired Projects:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great bookBy J. JudayI bought this as a gift for my mother who does a lot of crafts. She loves it! Lots of great ideas.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Love ItBy Naomi FarrI never knew there were so many uses for pine cones! And other wonderful outdoor treasures of course. Worick spells it out plain and simple with projects inspired by woods, meadow, shore, your backyard and the "urban jungle." This book is easy to flip through and choose projects based on where you have collected crafty items, whether it is a shell or rock from the beach or a flower from the woods. I especially love the small sections titled "Lickety Split," with quick ideas and tips. Many of these projects would make for great gifts, but you might even say the gift is in the enjoyment of making these things. Kate Quinby's illustrations are simple, yet sport that classic Backcountry Betty style. This is a fun book to have around for when inspiration hits and its sturdy, water resistant cover keeps it in good shape. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I'm Not Crafty Enough By V. Porter Although I thought the selection of crafts in this book was really good, I was disappointed that you needed so many supplies to do some of the projects. This book is more for the crafty person that has all of the essential crafting tools such as sewing machine, jig saw, glue gun, metal clippers, etc. I was hoping for a book more inspired by creating crafts from nature using minimal human products. I did really like the Dog Park Pillow in the Into the Woods chapter! That was something I could probably do, just because I happen to have a sewing machine. If you are an advanced crafter, I think this book would be for you. I do like how Worick had chapters for different areas of nature (woods, shore, meadow, backyard, and urban jungle).

A hip craft book with projects designed to bring the outdoors in, "Backcountry Betty" features quick, easy, and sustainable projects made from outdoor flotsam--bark, pinecones, flowers, and more.

About the Author JENNIFER WORICK is the author of more than 20 books, including the New York Times bestseller, The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook: Dating Sex, Nancy Drew's Guide to Life, and most recently Backcountry Betty (page 17) and The Prairie Girl's Guide to Life. Her writing has been featured in Cosmopolitan, Men's Health, Women's Health, Allure, and Philadelphia magazine. Jennifer lives in Seattle, Washington. JENNIFER WORICK is the author of more than 20 books, including the New York Times bestseller, The Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook: Dating Sex, Nancy Drew's Guide to Life, and most recently Backcountry Betty and The Prairie Girl's Guide to Life. Her writing has been featured in Cosmopolitan, Men's Health, Women's Health, Allure, and Philadelphia magazine. Jennifer lives in Seattle, Washington.