Kathryn N. Bernick : Basketry Cordage from Hesquiat Harbour, British Columbia before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Basketry Cordage from Hesquiat Harbour, British Columbia:

This volume documents an archaeological collection of plant-fibre artefacts from Hesquiat Harbour, on the west coast of Vancouver Island, British Columbia. It covers technological characteristics which highlight the skill and artistic accomplishments of the 19th-century Nuu-chah-nulth people.
