Warrencreative and comprehensive, this book appeals to all different levels of ability and interest, as well as multiple aesthetics. I bought several copies to give as christmas gifts. I gave one to my sister, who has experience making jewelry. one to my sister-in-law who has no experience but loves DIY and following good instructions. one to my boss, who has no interest in making jewelry but loves good design and quality photography. one to my mother-in-law who is an artist and a maker. and one to my son's teacher, who makes her own jewelry. i forgot to save one for me so now i have to order more. hoping there's a DIY earring book in the pipeline!3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Loving this book!By CandisI've loved jewelry since I was probably age 5 and could handle my Grandma's clip-on earrings. In more recent months I've craved jewelry making as a creative outlet, and have finally started making the time for it. I have more materials and ideas than technique at this point, and I've often found myself frustrated by trying to make each piece a grand masterpiece. Many first attempts have resulted in an awkward mess, eclectic but lacking focus. This book is a great way to show how simple can be beautiful (and much more versatile!) and a jewelry doesn't have to be bold to make a statement or to have appeal. The skill levels of the projects and styles represented do vary, so don't take "simple" to mean boring or unchallenging. But it eases you in and doesn't overwhelm the aspiring jewelry maker. So glad I came across this gem. I would recommend it both as a source of instruction and inspiration. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good book with lots of ideas and adult friendly bracelets. By Jennifer Lally. Not all of the options in this book are in the friendship bracelet wheelhouse but there are a lot of interesting ideas and you will definitely be able to get some inspiration for your own work. The directions and images are clear and relatively easy to understand (though sometimes I did seek the help of a video tutorial for some knots). I tend to use this book as an inspiration source rather than for specific projects but it works well either way.

One-of-a-Kind Bracelets You Can Make At Home Take your outfit and crafting up a notch with attention-grabbing bracelets inspired by one of the hottest and most fashionable jewelry lines in the country. Plus, you don't need to be crafty to make these pieces; you just need to have a desire to look fashionable. Materials include beads, chain, cord, fabric, leather, metal, plastic and wood so you can convey a multitude of looks and feels. What's more, all materials and tools can easily be found at local craft stores and hardware shops, so there's no fuss to the great fashion. With this bracelet-making guide, you'll master the art of crafting your own jewelry and have pieces that you'll cherish for a lifetime.

"Beautiful Bracelets by Hand combines Jade's perfect eye for fashionable, and yet timeless designs, with her knowhow about making jewelry by hand. This opus is beautifully illustrated and cleverly composed. It offers a multitude of step-by-step projects to create your own bracelets, not the crafty kind but superb and stylish numbers that your friends and family will eye with envy. I cannot recommend this book enough." Olivier Dupon, author of The New Artisans, The New Jewelers, The New Ptissiers and Floral Contemporary "I love We Dream In Colour's sensibility. They incorporate crafty, homespun charm into pieces that feel fresh and modern. The finishes and patinas also add a unique vintage vibe I love!" Jasmine Chang, Fashion Director, Good Housekeeping "Jade possesses that rare talent of injecting her designs with a feeling of sweet nostalgia, and is able to infuse the perfect balance of the old and the new in her thoughtful designs." Justina Blakeney, designer, blogger and author. About the Author: Jade Gedeon is the owner of We Dream in Colour, which specializes in handmade, one-of-a-kind adornments.
