I highly recommend this book! It's a great learning tool for not only talent but, managers, owners and program directors as well. I like that the author provides the reader with examples throughout the sections to give the reader an opportunity to really understand what he/she is reading. This book should stay a staple not only for new talent but, also seasoned radio professionals as an on-going guide, a refresher if you will. I gave it a 5-star rating because I felt it touched on important key points that radio professionals need to know.

By Kaleem-Ullah Abdullah After 28 years of being a radio personality, in and out of a Top 5 market, I needed Valerie's book because I was so frustrated at the results of my so-called career. I blamed the industry, consolidation, and incompetent ownership and management. I now feel empowered with new insights, ready to provide my field with more entertainment and revenue-generating performance, thanks to this guide (which I will refer to regularly). I hope my competition doesn't read it!

By thaiteman It's pretty slim pickins' when it comes to literature concerning the production and marketing of quality radio programming. I'm glad she was one of the few who decided to put pen to paper. Great book.
