Beautiful book to color!By Sarah EndertThis was a favorite birthday gift for my son, who's fascinated by birds of prey. The art is gorgeous, and he sees each page as being very special. He's very cautious to color them as realistically as possible. This is one of the fun activities that is also a learning activity, and they think they're just enjoying themselves. Great quality, selection and cost! Thank You!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great coloring bookBy tomSmall colored guides of each page on back of front cover--that's great! What a help. I hope/wish that all the books I order have something like that.

They are among the most impressive members of the bird family possessed of keen eyesight, powerful beaks, strong, grasping talons, and an appetite for meat. They are the raptors, or birds of prey, among them hawks, eagles, owls, and other species. In this treasury of ready-to-color illustrations, noted wildlife artist John Green has rendered 42 birds of prey from around the world (concentrating on species common in North America) both well-known and lesser known. Detailed, accurate illustrations depict the Bald Eagle, Common Black-hawk, Great Horned Owl, Andean Condor, Osprey, Crested Caracara, Turkey Vulture, Peregrine Falcon (on a dramatic double-page spread), and many more. Carefully researched captions provide invaluable information on each bird, and all 42 are pictured in color on the book's covers. Bird and nature lovers of all ages will want this fun-to-color informative guide to birds of prey; artists and designers will find it an inexpensive source of marvelous copyright-free bird illustrations.

About the Author For more than 20 years, John Green has created popular Dover coloring books. He specializes in realistic drawings of people, animals, and places, and his recent titles range from Life in Old Japan to Dogs to Paint or Color.
