The phrases are fun and familiar and the art is well done-- I particularly like the lettering. My only request: Please perforate the pages in any future books you do! I color with markers and would like to easily be able to remove the pages-- I haven't tried to tear any out yet, but I'm afraid they won't be neat. Regardless, I love the book and can't wait to start working on these!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy CustomerLove love love. About the Author We're two southern sister-in-laws (Angie and Rebecca) that share a love for our southern upbringing and way of life. We both remember being "Knee High to a Grasshopper" the first time we heard some of our favorite southernisms, like "Madder Than a Wet Hen" and "That Dog Won't Hunt." We're also two very busy working mothers, raising our kids in the south, making sure they have a proper southern education. We'd be appalled if they went off to college and didn't know the real meaning of "Bless Your Heart!"
