W. J. E. Crane : Bookbinding For Amateurs - 1903 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bookbinding For Amateurs - 1903:

Originally published in 1903, to include over 150 figures, this classic work on bookbinding covers: tools and appliances, materials, folding, placing plates, beating and pressing books, sawing and sewing, affixing end-papers, rounding and backing, getting into boards, cutting and beveling in boards, coloring edges, gilding edges, materials for marbling edges, headbands and registers, lining the back, covering, marbling and coloring leather, plain finishing, half and full gilt finishing, antique or monastic finishing, whole-bound finishing, conclusion and index.
