I love that the author has Released the First Adult coloring book that combines our Love of Books with an array of Designs , Activities and Book Related Phrases to get lost within and make our own.There is even a page to write down the names of your favorite Book Boyfriends and the Books your going to be reading next.The cover is Soo soft and there are hidden message and other Gems sprinkled around for us inside so be on the lookout during your Journey to Relaxation.One of the other things I loved was that the pages were one sided , so if you want to use gel pens or markers , you could do so , but make sure to use a divider between just in case it bleeds through.If you're a lover of anything Book Related and enjoy coloring and other activities this interactive book is definitely something you should pick up .2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Im an adult and I colorBy Diva Does 4 GoodSince God can't make me a bird so I can fly far far away, Im going to sit here and color.I have a great deal of adult coloring books, but this by far is my favorite. I saw tons of people on Facebook with them and got kind of jealous.. I wanted to be a cool kid, so I used my Prime magic wand and ordered it. Sweeney doesn't disappoint. Its fun and stylish. 40 different designs to color, games, and pages where I can write down all the names of my book boyfriends. Who could ask for anything more. I like how nothing is designed on the back of each page because the pens I use bleed through. This is a win. Also I find that once some of the pages are colored I can use them as office signs so the little people in this house can leave me to my own devices. I will use this coloring book to escape from my children. I will probably color from the toilet because that where I hide from them. I will color on a bus. I will color on a plane. I will color everywhere. I will color day and night. Martha Sweeney got this coloring book right..3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. I loved coloring when I was a child and recently picked ...By Heather C. I loved coloring when I was a child and recently picked it up again last year just prior to the adult coloring craze hit. I usually prefer to color leaves and flowers, but when I saw that author Martha Sweeney had created a bookish themed coloring book I HAD to have a copy. I was lucky enough to receive an autographed advanced copy in exchange for an honest review. I really like this book particularly because of the bookish themed designs. Plus, there are a variety of page design types to keep it interesting. It even has a word search included. I used several different coloring media throughout the book to get a good feel of what materials worked well with the paper. The Prismacolor Scholar pencils went down smoothly and vibrantly on the bright white pages. I do not have any alcohol based markers, but the Staedtler Triplus Fineliners and Faber Castell PITT pens had very little bleeding, although I still placed a blank sheet of paper behind the page I was coloring to prevent any transfer or bleed through. My only real complaint about this book is the paper quality. It feels very thin and cheap and you can easily see the print on the next page through the page you are coloring (as you can see in the photos below). I was very disappointed by this! Luckily, the pages are one sided and can be cut from the book for display if you choose. Unfortunately there, are no perforations and I'm not one to cut up my books! Recommend for any book lover and coloring book collector.

"...This would be the perfect gift for a romance reader. Or better yet, buy it for yourself and in between reading books color a page or two. Stick it in your beach bag along with your books, a pack of pencils/markers, and you've got a great book date!" - Michele H., The Coloring Club
