Helen Dickson : Bustle Sew Magazine December 2013: Issue 35 (Volume 35) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bustle Sew Magazine December 2013: Issue 35 (Volume 35):

Bustle Sew is the quirky independent English stitching company founded by Helen Dickson in 2009. Each month Bustle Sew publishes its magazine - containing six of Helen's original Bustle Sew projects as well as features, articles, recipes and much more for you to discover. This issue is mostly (but not quite all) about Christmas - you'll love the Santa apron - perfect for those cooks who find their Christmas jumpers are just a little too warm, baby reindeer, complete Nativity set - including the camel(!) and much more too. Mr Fox: Wish Upon a Star contains a link to Helen's video tutorial "How to Embroider Fur" so your fox's fur will be the best and nicest it can possibly be - fur's easy when you know how! All templates are included full-size so no fiddly re-sizing to do, and there's no advertising

About the Author Helen Dickson lives in deepest rural Devon, England in an old farmhouse near the sea with her two Newfoundland dogs, Ben and Daisy. Taught to sew and embroider by her Mum and Grandma as a child, Helen loves to share her skills with others, and to create projects that everyone can enjoy making. You can learn more about Helen on her website www.bustleandsew.com and keep up-to-date with her life in Devon on her blog: www.bustleandsew.com/blog
