Di Van Niekerk : Cicely Mary Barker's Flower Fairies in Ribbon Embroidery Stumpwork before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cicely Mary Barker's Flower Fairies in Ribbon Embroidery Stumpwork:

I was disappointed as I couldn't order the pre-printed fabric from the website, but there are instructions included that make it possible to have this done in a local print shop. I noticed that there are LOTS of different threads, ribbons, etc., used in each fairy portrait, but that's also why the finished products are so beautiful. It is great that the specific items used are listed, along with several places to order from. I really love this book, and saw lots of other beautiful books and kits available through the website. Might have to work quickly in

I knew from previewing the pages that I was going to like it, but it is a whole world of inspiration. Between the beautiful artwork of Cicely Mary Barker and the exquisite needlework of Di van Niekerk-- the combined works are breathtaking! I want to re-create what Di has done and admire the works and pass them on for the next generations to admire and love. What Di has done is to create heirlooms, art that will be treasured for many years to come. And Di makes that possible with her easy to follow instructions, material lists, and her website to support you with any needs that may arise. She saw the beauty in Barker's art and took it to an altogether new level. Thank you Di van Neikerk for creating this art, this gorgeous book and sharing all your knowledge with the world.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
